MODERN BRITISH HISTORY

Week 1
Oct. 2          Introduction
Oct. 7          The Old Society
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 1 & 2
                C. Dickens, Hard Times, start reading.

Week 2
Oct. 9          The Industrial Revolution
Oct. 14         The Working Classes
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 3 & 4
                C. Dickens, Hard Times

Week 3
Oct. 16         The Middle Classes
Oct. 21         The Upper Classes
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 5 & 6
                J.S. Mill, On Liberty

Week 4
Oct. 23         The Moral Revolution
Oct. 28         Politics and Class Society
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 7 & 8
                W. Bagehot, The English Constitution

Week 5
Oct. 30         Discussion
Nov. 4          HOUR EXAMINATION

Week 6
Nov. 6          The Irish Bog
Nov. 11         VETERANS DAY
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 9 & 10
                E. M. Forster, A Passage to India, start reading

Week 7
Nov. 13         The Growth of Empire
Nov. 18         The Emergence of Labor
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 11 & 12
                E. M. Forster, A Passage to India

Week 8
Nov. 20         The Departure of the Lords
Nov. 25         The Perplexities of Labor
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 15 & 16
                G. Orwell, The Road to Wigan Pier

Week 9
Nov. 27         THANKSGIVING
Dec. 2          The Perplexities of the Conservatives
Nov. 4          The Dilemmas of the Welfare State
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 17 & 19
                V. Woolf, Three Guineas

Week 10
Dec. 9          From Empire to Europe
Dec. 11         Discussion
Reading:        W. Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today, Chapters 20, 21, 22, 23