

UCSD Judaic Studies 2007-2008
Course Matrix

	Course Title
Fall 08	Course Description	Professor	Day/time
JUDA 1	Beginning Hebrew: Acquisition of basic vocabulary, fundamentals of Hebrew grammar, conversation, and reading.	Shuster	MWF/900a
JUDA 100	Introduction to the Hebrew Bible: its literary significance, its historical context, and its later interpretation. Bible is read in translation; course is taught in English.	Propp	MWF/100p
JUDA 101	Introduction to Hebrew Texts: Reading and analysis of texts from Biblical through modern authors, study of advanced vocabulary and grammar. Course taught in Hebrew and in English.	Faculty	MWF/1000a
JUDA 198	Directed Group Study - Student responsible to make arrangements with individual faculty members.	Faculty	See JS OFFICE
JUDA 199	Independent Study - Student responsible to make arrangements with individual faculty members.	Faculty	See JS OFFICE
HIEU 159	Three Centuries of Zionism	Hertz	MWF/1100a
HINE 102	The Jews/Their Homeland/Antiquity	Goodblatt	MWF/1200p
HINE 161/261	Seminar in the Hebrew Bible: Systematic reading and rendering of the books of the Hebrew Bible in order. Each time the class is taught, we will look at a different book. Adequate knowledge of Biblical Hebrew is required.	Staff	W /8a -11a

UCSD Judaic Studies 2007-2008
Course Matrix

Section ID
627520
627526
627525
E - HSS 4008
E - HSS 4008
628613
628747
628750